

Identity Crisis

Movie Night

SUPPLIES: A digital copy of the Identity Crisis movie, popcorn, and snacks.

LAUNCH: Invite friends to a movie night at your home, church, or school.

- PLAN:
- View the movie.
 - Print the 7Ps affirmation sheet.
 - Use the Conversation Guide to lead an informal discussion following the movie.
 - Consider using this event to launch a 6-week Identity Crisis Bible Study or a Book Club.

For more information about Identity Crisis visit: theboylansisters.com

The Identity Crisis resources including many free downloads can be found at: theboylansisters.com or andreapolnaszek.com

Thank you for watching the movie, Identity Crisis. We are prayerful that God will use this film as a pathway for truth, life and love. Identity Crisis is a great movie for teens, their friends, and families. This guide is a tool to start a meaningful conversation about what it means to made in the image of God.

Design by AR

A Conversation About Identity

CONVERSATION GUIDE

“I don’t know Who I am anymore?” – Madison

PREPARE: Print the downloadable 7Ps affirmation sheet.

Provide pens.

Encourage movie watchers to stay for a discussion following the film.

AFFIRMATIONS: In the movie Madison seeks to fix the parts of her she thinks of as weaknesses. She magically clones herself so she could be confident, assertive and brave, and when her clone appears and begins to do life for her, she realizes that she needs to make the changes for herself and be herself.

- What did you notice about Madison at the beginning of the movie?
- What feelings did Madison begin to manifest as time went on and the clone started living more of her life?
- What is one thing you learned from the speech Madison presented to Dr. Angela at the end of the film?

Take a moment to read each of the 7 Ps and the verse connected to each affirmation.

Encourage your group members to choose one word to take with them.

CLOSING PRAYER:

Dear Jesus, thank you that we are fearfully and wonderfully made in your image. Amen

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES:

Behind The Scenes contains stories from students and others involved in the making of the faith based movie Identity Crisis, to share in post-movie discussions. Download it here: theboylansisters.com

Design by AR